Walnut ... It is recommended that the township caucuses be held on October 7, 1882. By order of the Republican County Central Committee. GEO. W. YOUNG, Cha'm.

Wirt Walton, of the Clay Center "Dispatch" was nominated by the Republicans of Clay County last Saturday for Representative. Looks as though all the boys intended being there next winter.

The worst cass we ever heard of is a man who went about Smith county during the primaries and represented himself as Webb McNall. It is a wonder Webb was not beaten for the nomi nation .- Junction City Union.

The Junction City Union publishes a petition as long as the moral law asking Geo. W. Martin to become a candidate for the Legislature, which he very gracefully proceeds to do with out making many promises, but seems concious of his ability to be heard when he gets there.

before leaving on his wedding tour last week, instructed the young man he left in the office to write something appropriate and nice. A sample quotation will show that the young man obeyed instructions and wascal exceedingly cloquent: "Fate has garlanded the chaplet of our friend with one of the fairest and sweetest flowers that ever bloomed in the parterre of beauty, whose fragrance will impregnate with redolence every impulse of his generous nature. The brightest star that radiates in the Dougherty, of the Downs Times The brightest star that radiates in the galaxy of fascinating women shines upon and illuminates her pathway with bland smile and alluring light, whose resplendent effulgence, glowing with undimmed luster each revolving season, will pilot the victor of so estimable a Hoover and others of Balmont town. will pilot the victor of so estimable a Hoover and others of Belmont town-prize to a haven of the purest happiness.' ship was referred back for more defin--Stockton Record.

large hall, 40x60 feet, was crowded as was the stairway and hall below. "he Governor spoke for two hours, holding his audience in wrapt attention; nearly half of whom were compelled to stand during the whole time. One man said to us, "after the close of the speech I was just getting ready for him to commence." The manner in which he made his comparison of the Republican and Demoeratic parties, their platforms and positions, were especially interesting to the old timers, who bear him out in his truth fullness. He then devoted some attention to Mr. Glick, showing up his position on the temperance question, using his Fort Scott speech with good effect on his hearers. On the whole the rally was a successful one, and the Governor made votes for the ticket-but more especially for himself. WOMEN AT THE BAR. The items in these columns a few days ago concerning the admission of Mrs. Francis Millard, of Phillipsburg. to practice in the courts of this state, Chas Bradley V S Keckley and also appointed deputy county attor- S J Hartman consta ner, brings up prominently a decisior just rendered by Chief Justice Park, of the supreme court of Connecticut, in favor of the legality of admitting women to practice in the courts of the state.

The question of female suffrage being the courts of the state. also so prominently before the people of this state and the neighboring state of Nebraska, the success of Miss Hall, in the Counctiont case, will be looked upon as an important contribution to the advancement of their cause. There were four judges comprising the Connucticut groups, and but one dissented. The ones. court, and but one dissented. The question came before the court in the case of F T M Dutcher..... Female law Female law students received a check from the rulicgs of Justice Gray; they will be encouraged now by the arguments and the decision made in Conneticut.

Very important advances have been made in the last few years in granting the right of women to practice law in the courts and to hold office. Women have now the right to practice law in Missouri and Connecticut, and according to the law passed by congress in 1879, may practice before the supreme court Kansas, on Saturday, October 14th, 1882, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices:

There exists the supreme country of the United States after three years' practice in the highest court of any state, for the following offices: They cujoy the full right of suffrage in Wyoming; in Colorado they have the right in part; in Kansas, Massachusetts County Attorney.
